WAR/Guerra – People's impotency

Wars: How powerful men become moguls | Who wants them and who makes them: analysis of the first 23 years of 2000 | Narrative and alternative narratives: the false journalistic information

Exhibition: 20 January - 16 February 2024

In connection with annual events of the Memorial Day - 27 January 2024 - held in Venice, at the Ghetto Novo square, the VISIONI ALTRE Gallery invites artists to reflect on the theme of war. Different in language and research, the works that will be hosted will be a way to investigate how the world has always been the scene of atrocities and every war is a man's irrational and self-serving achievement.

The artists are invited to submit their artworks using their own expressive language with no limitations on technique or research. The following are allowed to be exhibited:

2D works that don't exceed 30x30 cm (including frame);

3D works that don't exceed 30x30x30cm;

artist books that don't exceed 30 cm (open book).

Essential conditions (subject to exclusion):

works will have to arrive at the gallery no later than the 13th day of January, 2024

works must be signed by the author works must be fitted with hooks (if it's to be hung)

works must have a complete caption (title/technique/date and size) works must be accompanied by a brief description (not exceeding 300 characters).

To be admitted to the participation, each artist must have a membership card of the VISIONI ALTRE gallery. For those who don't have it yet, the registration form is attached.

The works should be sent to:

VISIONI ALTRE | Adolfin de Stefani
Cannaregio 2918
30121 VENEZIA - ITALIA

Please note: after the exhibition, works must be collected within one month of the exhibition closing date. All works not withdrawn by March 15, 2024 will become part of the VISIONI ALTRE archive by default.
